Description	An unforgettable self-guided journey through the Alps at the foot of the majestic Jungfrau - culminating at 3454 meters. Spend a day exploring the mountains of the Bernese Oberland. Between the lakes of Thun and Brienz, Interlaken has many surprises in store for you. Overlooked by the famous trio of summits (Eiger, Mönch & Jungfrau) this village located in the heart of the Alps is full of shops. Take advantage of your day to taste Swiss specialties, this is the ideal place to eat a Swiss fondue. Stroll through the charming streets of this famous village on your free day. Interlaken is one of the oldest, best-known and most popular summer holiday resorts in Switzerland. The first visitors arrived in the 17th century, and as the means of transport improved with the arrival of the railway, boat services on the lakes and, more recently, the motorway, Interlaken became the main tourist center of the Bernese Oberland. IFamous for its panoramic views, take a stroll along the Höhematte Park in the center of town, where you'll be greeted by an unforgettable view of the Jungfrau massif. The lakes that flank the town offer opportunities for boat cruises and lakeside walks, perfect for relaxing and enjoying the alpine beauty. Look at the sky and observe all the paragliders, this is a famous photo of Interlaken. At the end of the afternoon, board the bus to Zurich and admire the sumptuous Swiss landscapes you will pass through.
